My PROFILE

JAMES BROWNE BA (1st hon') Illustrator & Graphics.

Recently I completed another assignment (July '08) to produce over 100 b/w illustrations for the OUP. I have 15+ years freelancing experience. My career began in the mid 1980's doing kids and youth comics for IPC magazines, SELECT music-lifestyle magazine and The Right Angle architecture magazine, also double-page features for GAMES™ computer gaming magazine (then part of the Highbury group.) Then moving on to include commissioned children's books for Rigby and M2F Books among others.

My commissions are diverse encompassing Information-Graphics for Marketing and Design companies, also Greetings Cards and T-Shirt designing including setting digital specifications for particular print outputs.

Please refer to my Webfolio: www.doodlingjim.com to see full Client List and much more, for example you will see 'BLOG!' linking you to my personal projects - I'm continually updating it so do check it out for a complete overview of my versatility both technical and creative.

Thankyou for taking the time to see everything and I trust you can keep my PDF in your database should a suitable project arise.

In anticipation,
Jim.
